	Court of Appeals Case Number: 2016CA920
ORDER re: expediting oral argument date

TO: APPELLANTS

Upon consideration of the motion for oral argument and for an expedited oral argument date if the supreme court does not grant the pending C.A.R. 50 petition, and considering the objection and joinder in the objection, the Court

ENTERS the following Order:

The Court GRANTS the motion for oral argument. It is noted, however, that the case may be decided more quickly if oral arguments are waived and the case is set to a division as soon as it is at-issue.

The Court DENIES IN PART that portion of the motion requesting an expedited oral argument date. If the motion for oral arguments is not withdrawn, the Court will set the case to the earliest calendar setting once it is fully briefed and at-issue.

The answer brief remains due on November 17, 2016.
